
Robert discussed the remaining monies from fiscal year 2018-19 for scheduled maintenance. Due to COVID there is an extension to utilize these funds. The intention is to do so by replacing the automatic doors at MLK. The doors are obsolete and parts can no longer be obtained for repairs, therefore their replacement is necessary. Architects are working on the specs. If there are remaining funds after this is completed, Facilities will move on to Bradshaw.

Charlie inquired if there would be enough money to go toward the Throwing Sports Facility project.

: Robert indicated that there is not.

Robert gave the Committee a recap on the Throwing Sports Facility project. The Athletics department proposed a new area for this project, the practice football field. PLT has looked at and approved the new location. Athletics met with Facilities and the LPA architects and made a determination on the space. This project is currently awaiting a quote from the architects. It is presumed that this will be within budget.

Robert reiterated that this is the relocation of the reference desk at Digital Library on the second floor. The renovation encompassed the removal of a large wooden wall, and chrome space needle in middle of floor, and the carpet is also being replaced in the reception area and is slated to go in today and finish up by the end of the week.

Leslie inquired if any art pieces have been moved in the renovation.
Robert indicated that no art has been moved, only stacks.

Charlie inquired about the other reception area that was prone to wate

Robert discussed the meeting that he and Dr. Huff had with Burrtec to identify ways the campus can be more compliant with the sustainability initiative from the state and the subsequent meeting with himself, Burrtec and Cheryl. One idea stemmed from food waste. The Burrtec representative also toured the RCC campus and provided some recommendations for compostable bins. This group will be working to ascertain funding for this.

Tonya shared that the Food Services Committee has not yet met this semester.

Jarod pass on a message from Bobbie, the Parking Committee has not yet met, updates will be provided after their first meeting.
